

Maths Opens Doors...

FCAT
The best we can be

At Montgomery we want to develop a can-do culture so that student's mathematical thinking by enhancing their fluency, reasoning and solve routine and non-routine problems. This will enable our students to be confident, numerate citizens who can contribute positively to society and think mathematically.